- Muhammad was the chosen recipient and messenger of the word of god through the “divine revelations”. Muslims from all walks of life strive to follow his example. After the holy Qur'an, the sayings of the Prophet, in the hadith, and descriptions of his way of life, the sunna, are the most important Muslim texts.

Biblical Jesus- Christians generally consider Jesus to be the Christ, the long-awaited Messiah, as well as the one and only Son of God. The opening words in the Gospel of Mark (1:1), "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God", provide Jesus with the two distinct attributes as Christ, as the Son of God, standing at the right hand of God.
